PD/Curriculum Budget Summary

Comprehensive Planning

- PD planning and district goals achievement
- RtI-AIS planning and development
- APPR planning and documentation

Professional development

- Workshop/training opportunities and required record-keeping
- Mentoring new employees
- Continuation of ALCS curriculum alignment with the NYS P-12 Common Core Learning Standards
 - Examination of the progression of content taught in successive grades
 - Implementation of core instruction and block intervention for both Math and ELA at elementary levels in process
- Core/elective course offerings reviewed

- Data Driven Instruction mandates increase our need to monitor growth and achievement:
- Formative assessment requirements
 - Scheduled interim assessments to inform instruction
 - To analyze information about students' learning
 - To provide appropriate, timely feedback for staff use
 - To generate instructional change that will impact the rate and depth of learning
 - Regular benchmarking with universal tools with tiered support based on results
- Uniform summative assessments in development
- Development of NYSED required Student Learning Objectives (SLO's)

- □ Public Vote (5/15)

2012-2013 Budget Parameters

- Our levy is "at the cap" = 2.1%
- Added $400,000 from fund balance for a "soft landing"
- Do our best to maintain current programs and services

Reducing the Gap

- District Leadership Team
 - Materials and supplies
 - Decision Input Unit Budgeting
- MS/HS Schedule

What if the budget vote does not pass?

- □ 0% tax levy increase
- Additional $156,621 in cuts
 - Non-mandated programs will be considered for elimination
 - Elementary art, music, PE
 - Clubs and activities
 - Athletics
 - Field trips, conferences, and training
 - Nurse and library services reduction
 - Larger class sizes across the district can be anticipated
